DETAILED ACTION

Request for Continued Examination

A request for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, including the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e), was filed in this application after final rejection. Since this application is eligible for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, and the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e) has been timely paid, the finality of the previous Office action has been withdrawn pursuant to 37 CFR 1.114. Applicant's submission filed on 7/16/2009 has been entered.

REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: the prior art does not teach or suggest a composition consisting essentially of an alcohol, water and a glycol in amounts of about 20% to about 65% of glycol and 20% to about 70% of alcohol.

The closest prior art is Touitou (US Patent 5,716,638) in view of Peart (US Patent 6,509,005) and Vachon (XP-000965573). Touitou teaches a topical composition comprising phospholipids, alcohols, water, delta-9-tetrahydrocannabinol as an active ingredient and propylene glycol. Touitou requires the presence of phospholipids and the "consisting essentially of" language in the instant claims excludes phospholipids, as phospholipids would materially affect the instant composition. Peart teaches pharmaceutical compositions comprised of delta-9-tetrahydrocannabinol which contain ethanol and water. However, Peart teaches that using ethanol in concentrations that exceed 20% will result in a particle size too large to effectively administer tetrahydrocannabinol to the lungs (Col. 5, lines 28-32). Further, Vachon teaches delta-9-tetrahydrocannabinol in a formulation with propylene glycol and water. However, Vachon does not teach the ranges of either that fall within the scope of the current claims. Therefore, the prior art does not teach compositions comprising a solvent for delta-9-tetrahydrocannabinol consisting essentially of an alcohol, water and a glycol in the ranges and ratios currently claimed.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
